"Out of 10% failure in business in Chncinnaid during 1915. I found that Chncinnaid during 1915. I found that 30 firms, or 86 per cent had not advertised, and that 15 firms, or 14 per cent. had advertised spasmodically and invorcetly or too aparingly."

The above statement was made by Jesse M. Joseph, in a recent lecture before the Advertisers' Club of Cincinnaid, Ohio.

What's the asswer? Tou know it as well as I.

In this day and age, you cannot be little the value of publicity in any to endeavor. The evidence that it pays to overwhelming for any man of business to think seriously of trying to get along without it.

Publicity sells goods: it collects debta, it locates missing persons and catches criminals. It is the only way in the world in which one
